

The Current

British Columbia ASCD Newsletter

President's message

It is with great pleasure that we bring you our latest newsletter featuring this engaging and accessible design. The newsletter is meant to be viewed in your email without having to open an attachment. All articles are linked to our website for more information.

- Judy Robb

Fall 2006 issue

In this issue:

- President's message
- Alan November
- A Great Debate

Alan November

Expanding the Boundaries of Teaching and Learning

A thought provoking look into technology, our children's future and our changing role as educators. Event details:

Thursday October 19th at the Guildford Sheraton
8:30—2:30 pm. Cost is $150.

More details and registration is on our website

Paul Shaker
&
Peter Cowley

A Great Debate

Register now!

PAUL SHAKER

A GREAT DEBATE

"How Should Schools Be Measured?"

PETER COWLEY

The British Columbia Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (BCASCD) presents

DINNER AND "A GREAT DEBATE"

PAUL SHAKER
Dean of Education,
Simon Fraser University

between

PETER COWLEY
Education Policy Researcher,
Fraser Institute

JANUARY 18, 2007

4:30-8:00 p.m.

Newlands Golf and Country Club
21025 48th Avenue • Langley, BC

Our Executive

Please contact any member of our executive to provide feedback on this newsletter.

Executive	Member-at-Large
Past President Brenda Lightburn	Central Interior Jean Borsa
President Judy Robb	Fraser Valley Leslie Langford
President Elect Leslie Andersson	Lower Mainland Maureen Dockendorf
Secretary Maureen Dockendorf	Vancouver Island Anne Boyd
Treasurer Randy Huth	Kootenays Grant Lenarduzzi
Executive Director Frank Dunham

For more information about BCASCD visit our website: <http://bcascd.org/>
To remove your name from our mailing list, please email us